People today are different from those of days gone by. Concerns and issues will always vary, but a significant change in today's People can be seen in new areas of awareness. We continue to study our Earth but we concentrate on the effect society is having on the environment. We have become more unique and individualistic than more uniform and categorical. Our interests are widening and our concerns are real. We must reach out to those who need us and respect those who protect us.

Today's People are not just the students of a university. They are the young and old; black, yellow, red and white; rich and poor; small and tall; weak and strong. Each is a separate life never to be replaced—A separate life without value when there is no one to love, to touch, to help, to share with, to learn from. For what is life but People from whom you can learn from over and over again.

In turning through this yearbook, you are not just turning through pages of pictures and copy but through three seasons of your college life; the seasons which live because of People through whose constant interaction in today's world have proven a need for living together . . .

harboring peace . . .

David Harb, Editor

In late September Cullowhee and Western Carolina University come alive. Students (some ready, some not) return to find old friends and make new ones. Freshmen pour in "just to make a go of it."

The setting is Cullowhee and the mountains of Western North Carolina where nothing is more beautiful than the autumn leaves . . . nothing, that is, except the people together.

Activities filled the weekends in the fall: football, homecoming, soccer, the fun house, banana olympics, plays, elections and hikes. The movement and color that always characterize the fall were captured in the activity of players, cheerleaders and spectators during an afternoon game.

Fall extended into winter with hardly a snowflake. It seemed that gloves and scarves would remain packed away under fall clothing.

Basketball had begun and the annual Miss Catamount Pageant was over. The trees were bare and the grass no longer green. All of the signs were there, but one-snow.

Snow finally came to Cullowhee but it wasn't there for long. There was only a short time for sledding, skiing, snowball fighting and warming by an open fire, but a short time can leave lasting memories.

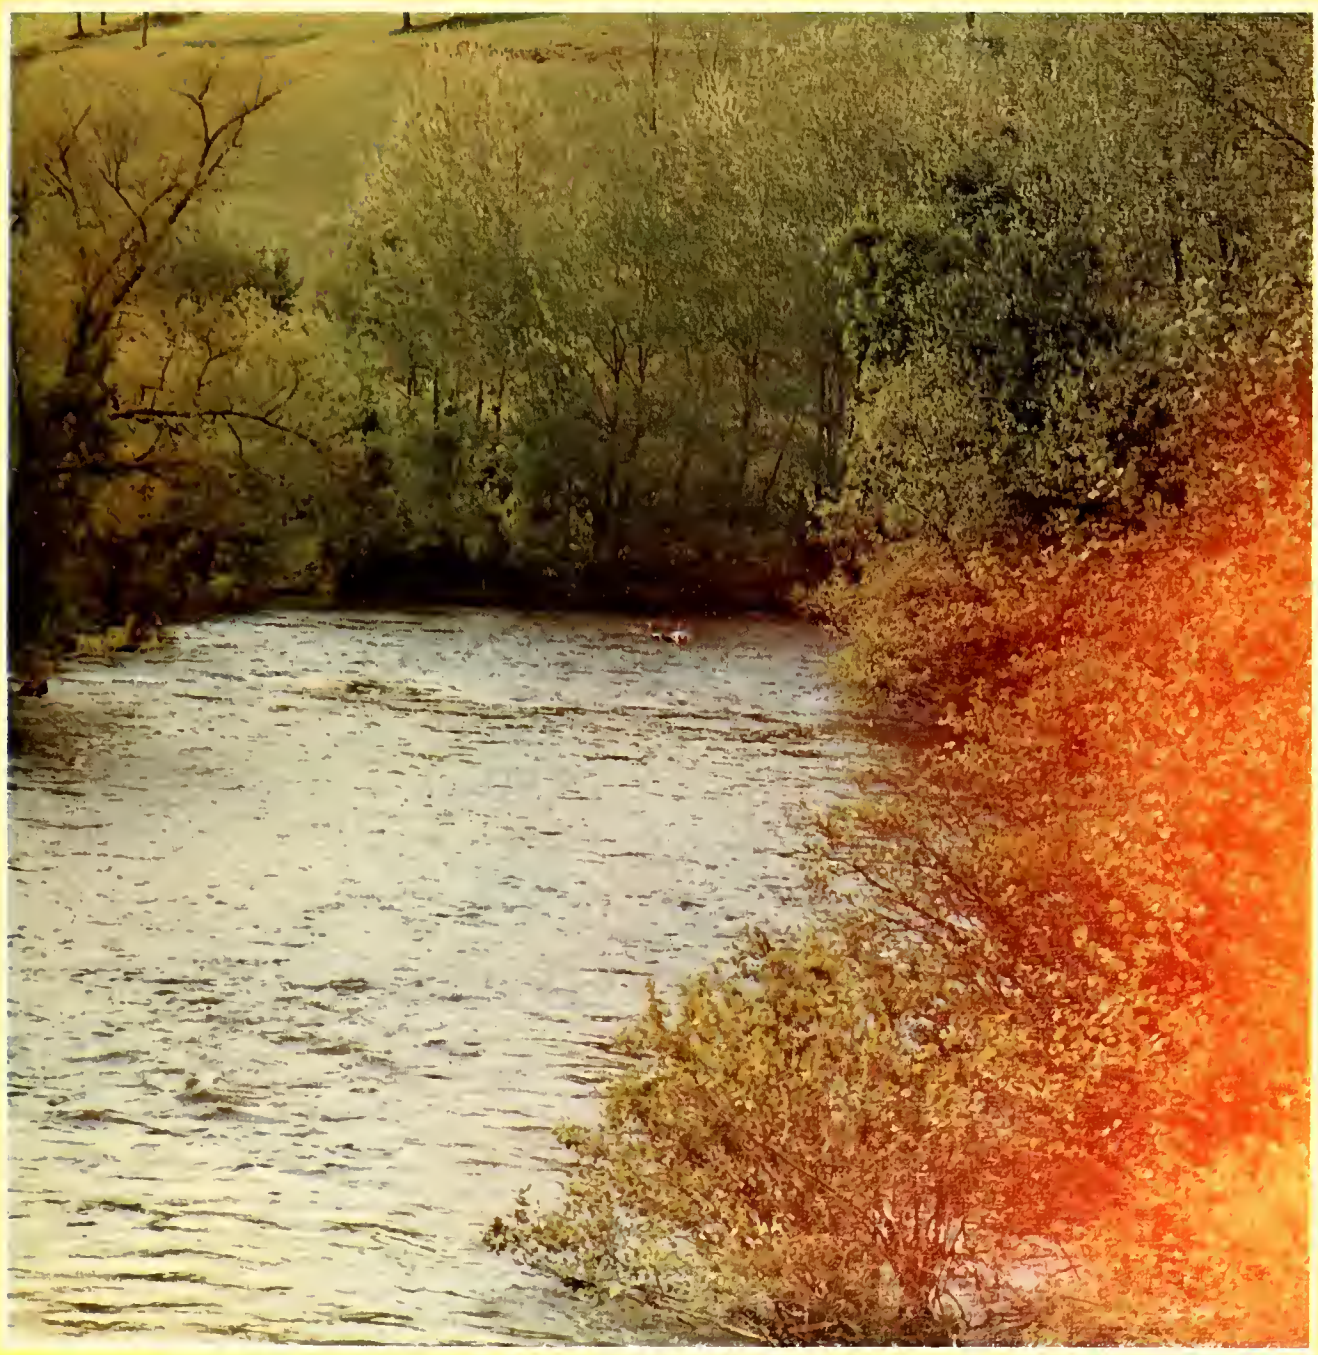
As the ice, snow, cold and rain gave way to breezy afternoons and warm sunshine, students began to spend most of their time outside. The dogwoods, rhododendron and azaleas adorn the campus.

Although students say there is nothing to do in Cullowhee, these warm spring days offer opportunities to go tubing, camping, swimming, trout fishing and hiking in the surrounding mountains and streams.

Spring is a young man's fancy . . . a banana split from the Town House . . . weekends in Atlanta or Gatlinburg . . . frisbee throwing on the University Center lawn . . . thoughts . . . memories . . . people . . . together.

Through all the seasons and the times of our days, there will never be a happier memory than that of our friends.

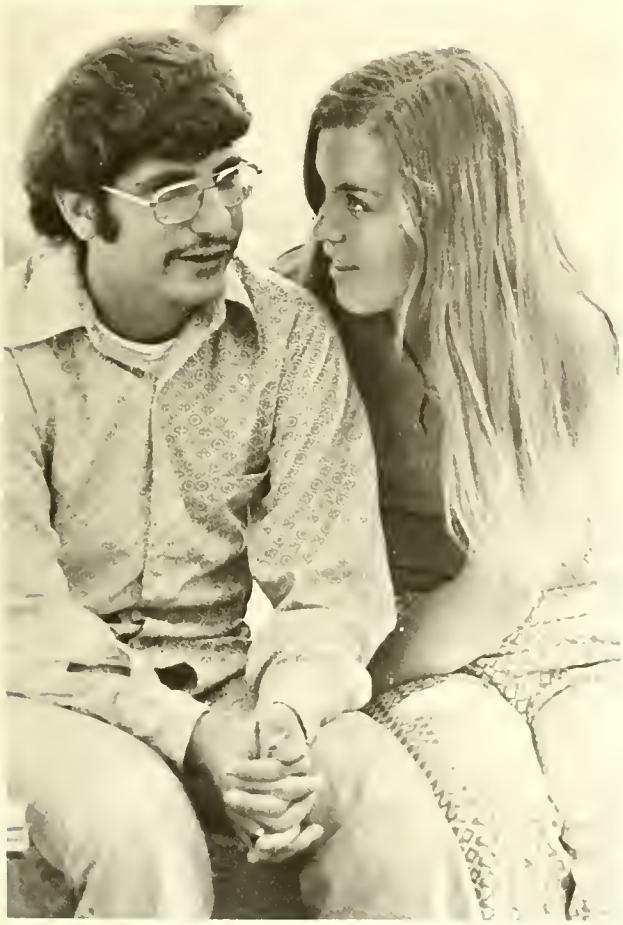


UNIVERSITY LIFE

THE YEAR BEGINS . . .

Fall quarter began with the usual problems of registration, rejected schedules, and moving in. But, along with the problems came the pleasure of meeting new friends and getting together with old ones. The summer was over and so were summer jobs, beach trips and summer romances. The year began with memories and friends.

. . . TOGETHER AGAIN



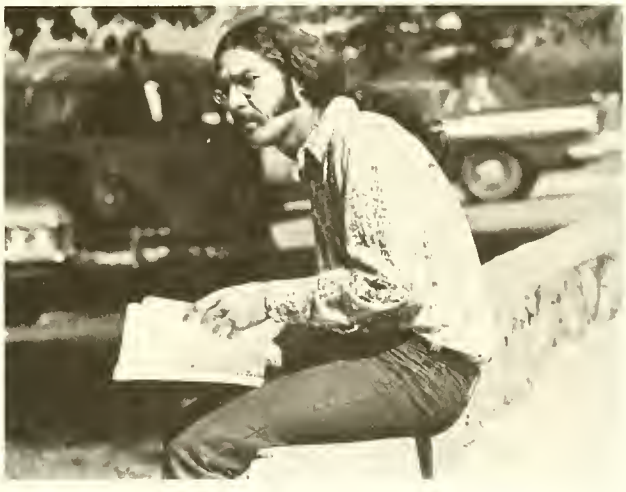
THE OLD FAMILIAR PLACES

Back to the old familiar places . . . the laundramat, the post office, the infirmary, the cafeteria and the dorms . . . No more mothers around to wash your clothes . . . No cure for homesickness . . . Hundreds crowding into the post office to find their spider undisturbed . . . Skip breakfast, early lunch, late supper. Yes, back to the old familiar places . . . looking for new faces . . . discovering old ones . . . anticipating tomorrow.

ONE WAY

CLASSES BEGIN: "Drop it"

"Drop it! She's the hardest teacher on campus!" This famous line could be heard over the entire campus as students began classes and discovered who their teachers were. Eight o'clock classes are hard to make but on the first day everyone goes to class.



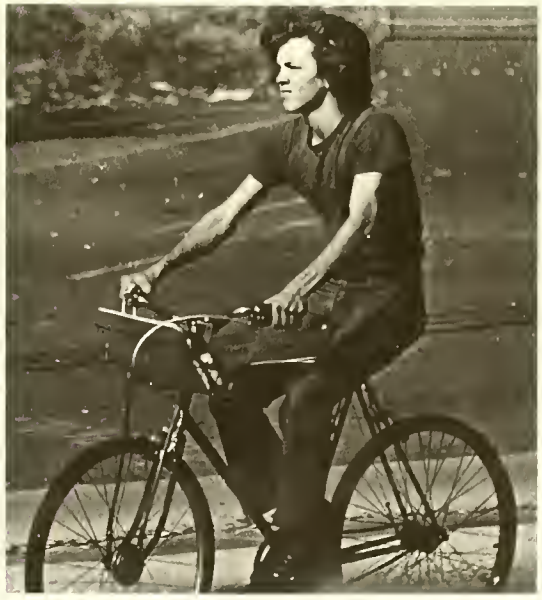
IT'S NOT EASY

No, it's not easy to sit in classes on beautiful Fall days. Thank goodness for the breaks in between classes when students can enjoy the mountains, each other and a short nap in the University Center.

SOME FIND IT HARD

OTHERS FIND IT EASY BIKES BIKES BIKES

Fall quarter marked the invasion of Western Carolina University by hundreds of bicycles. Students living on- and off-campus found them to be a cheap and quick means of transportation. Riding also helped get rid of those "few extra pounds".



CENTER BOARD GIVES STUDENTS A BREAK

The University Center Board has long been one of the most active groups on campus at Western Carolina University and Fall quarter was one of the most active. The quarter began with the Banana Olympics in which 1500 students ate a 300 foot banana split. Halloween brought the third annual Fun House; this year with more spooks, blood and screams. Due to the new "jeans-look", a jeans fashion show was presented in the Grandroom of the University Center. Cash prizes were awarded to the winners of the Scavenger Hunt; another annual event.

CULLOWHEE BANANA OLYMPICS

The Olympic runner . . . peels back the banana . . . and the Chancellor takes the first bite.

Fifteen hundred devoured the 300 foot banana split.

WINGLESS VICTORY

"Wingless Victory" was the first play presented by the University players Fall quarter. This was their entry in the American College Theatre Festival. Appropriate to this day and age, it was the story of a white man's marriage to a native princess and the difficulties involved with its acceptance by family and friends. A tragic ending, the beautiful princess killed herself and her children. The female lead was Miss Vernelle Mills and the male lead was Mr. Allen Freeman.

READER'S THEATRE

Reader's Theatre is a strange sort of artistic animal and is not well known. The readers do not act, but they read with emotion and understanding. Two different plays were given each night of the week: "Revolution"; "A Thurber Carnival"; "Day of Absence"; "Nikki, A Revolutionary Leader"; "We Sing Out of the Earth"; "The Hairy Falsetto"; "Indians"; "Western North Carolina Ghost Stories"; "The Maturation of a Woman"; and "The New Awareness".

YES, VIRGINIA THERE IS A CULLOWHEE

When searching for big name entertainers the first question they ask is "Where is Western Carolina?" and of course the answer is "Cullowhee". The next question is either "Where is Cullowhee?" or "What is Cullowhee?" Regardless of where Cullowhee is, the Student Government Productions provided some fine entertainment for Fall quarter. Students were given entertainment from every field.

Probably the biggest hit of the quarter was Flash Cadillac and the Continental Kids (above & below).

GET INVOLVED

Get Involved! That's what the young people today are being told and that's just what several students did at the Flash Cadillac concert. They came in their white socks, penny loafers, slicked hair, sun glasses, T-shirts, bobby socks and long skirts. Odds are they had the best time at the concert.

CULTURE, LECTURES, PRECISION

Every Thursday night in Hoey Auditorium the Music Department presents a program. These programs are open not only to students but anyone in the community. Two of the performing artists Fall quarter were (above) Yarbrough and Cowan and (below) Allison Nelson.

CHANCELLOR'S INAUGURATION

Under the new college system in North Carolina, Western Carolina University inaugurated its first Chancellor, Dr. Carlton, in a simple ceremony followed by a luncheon.

STUDENTS TAKE PART IN ELECTION YEAR '72

To most of the students of Western Carolina University this was their very first Presidential election and for many their very first time to vote. The young Republicans Club and The Young Democrats Club became very active on campus by setting up booths and distributing literature. Both gubernatorial candidates visited Western during the quarter.

Jim Holshouser, now Governor of North Carolina, visited the campus as a candidate.

Election sites were set up by Nixon and McGovern forces on campus. (below) A mock election was held in which Nixon, Holshouser and Gallifinakis won.

The infirmary received a needed addition.

WHO'D EVER BELIEVE IT?

Fall quarter brought many unusual happenings to Western but most unusual was the erection of a Hardee's at the entrance to campus. At 11:00 PM there never fails to be long lines waiting for their before-bedtime meals.

Who'd ever believe this is a state car?

Who'd ever believe a dorm hall would sponsor a wall wash? (right) Women are going to Barber Shops?

END OF A SEASON . . . END OF A STADIUM

As Western closed the season, it finished 8th in AP small college polls. The season began and ended with three straight victories. The last victory over arch-rival Appalachian was perhaps the sweetest win of the season because it was the first defeat of the Boone school at Western since 1958. The victory was fitting also because it was the final game to be played in the twenty-five year old Memorial Stadium — Home of the Catamounts. As the final game came to a close fans mobbed the field and tore down the goal post.

HOMECOMING: A 4-WAY STREET

Academics . . . Social . . . Athletics . . . Individuality — name the four streets that made up the theme for Homecoming 1972. As Alumni and friends return, students prepare for the weekend. Building displays, making trips to Sylva and Waynesville, and cheering at the big game, are all part of Homecoming week activities.

SOCCER TEAM — BEST YET!

The 1972 Soccer team posted its third consecutive winning season with a 9-2-1 record. Because of graduation, half of the 1971 squad was lost. But, behind the scoring of Patrick Cheung, Ken Mason, Ed Stolle and Wayne Marshburn, the Soccer team surprised everyone with its best record ever.

Without the defense of Ed Young, Mike Bruder, Bobby Wood, Dan Mincey and Duke Angier the Cats would not have held their first five opponents with only one goal. The gutty squad stopped the Southern Conference Champs, Appalachian State, six to four and shutout the division runner-up, Davidson, two to zero.

Patrick Cheung, a Hong Kong native, scored 21 goals for the Cats and was the fourth leading scorer in the nation. Cheung was also named to the All-South Team.

FAME AND GLORY

In 1970 Coach Charles Schrader is quoted as saying, "We'll have a tough schedule. Anytime you begin a sport it's tough." It was indeed tough for the Soccer team and they won only one game. Now, in only its fourth year as a major sport at Western, the team has achieved much fame and glory for Western Carolina University.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL WINS STATE TOURNAMENT

The Women's Intercollegiate Volleyball Team of Western Carolina University, coached by Miss Betty Peele, assisted by Barbara Jones, won the State NCAIAW Volleyball Tournament.

The eight teams eligible to compete in the tournament were: East Carolina, Elon, Wake Forest, Duke, Appalachian, UNC-G, Chowan, and WCU.

Out of twenty-nine matches, these women won twenty-two and lost only seven. They placed third, competing with sixteen teams, in the Jacksonville University Invitational Tournament in Jacksonville, Florida.

INTRAMURALS BIG AT WESTERN

Western Carolina University is very proud of its intramural program. Approximately two thousand students participate either actively or as spectators. Fall quarter involves football, volleyball, tennis, handball, and field hockey. Any student at Western may participate whether black or white, male or female, Greek or non-Greek. This is a chance for good competition and making new friends.

MISS THANKSGIVING WOMANLESS PAGEANT

The fourth annual Miss Thanksgiving Pageant was held in Hoey auditorium immediately following the Thanksgiving break. Sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity, the purpose of the pageant is to raise money, food, clothing and toys for needy families in the surrounding area. Groups on campus are given the chance to participate by sponsoring someone in the pageant.

For the third year the Madrigal Dinner was held in the Grandroom lasting several nights. Above are the Madrigal singers.

CHRISTMAS BREAK NEARS

The beginning of exam week was only a sign that Christmas break was near. The Christmas spirit had already hit students at Western through the Madrigals, Christmas caroling and a party for underprivileged children sponsored by Reynolds Hall.

Miss Catamount 1972 held Mary as she waited for her turn to see Santa and finally got to tell him what she wanted.

Home for Christmas.

ANOTHER QUARTER BEGINS

Christmas break seemed much too short. After registering, picking up schedules, getting books and finding a place to keep those new clothes, students are ready to go back home for another break.

Letters help to brighten that first week.

MUG SHOTS RETURN

Class pictures were made Fall Quarter but proofs did not return until Winter Quarter. "Mine are terrible!" she said. "No they're not," he replied (thinking, "What a dog!").

"Which one would you chose if you were me?"

"Don't tell me mine aren't in here!"

SAME ROUTINE DAY AFTER DAY

After a week of classes, one gets into a routine it is hard to escape from. Early morning classes means very early showers, waiting in line for a sink and meeting someone for breakfast. Classes seem unbearable but the day becomes beautiful when a guy asks a girl out and she accepts.

The morning begins with a trip to the shower.

Mornings bring a rush for the sinks. (Right) At 7:30 AM it is hard to stay awake while waiting for someone for breakfast.

The library is a place to study, read, do research and take a nap.

Some prefer to study in the snack bar.

Some can block out the loud music and stay in their rooms to study.

Girls will be girls!

STUDY HABITS VARY

After each day of classes, students start studying for the next. Study habits vary with almost every student. Some take time out only to eat and sleep. Some don't study at all. Some don't have to. Some just don't want to!

Six hours of classes can wear one out.

For some just talking to friends is a means of relaxation.

Doing what one enjoys is another way of relaxing.

A NEED TO RELAX

After a hectic day of classes, students unwind in various ways. While many spend their leisure time in the University Center or gym, others find ways to relax in the privacy of their rooms.

Weight-watching is a pastime for many women.

With weekends comes open house and relaxing with the one you love.

A TRUE SIGN . . . WINTER IS HERE

Although Western is located in the mountains of North Carolina, snow is not very frequent. The university is located in a valley so winters are not too harsh. When snow does come, students make the most of it with boots, heavy coats and gloves. To most, the snow is a refreshing change of scenery.

Snow makes getting to class difficult.

It also provides a lot of fun.

WHO GOES TUBING IN FEBRUARY?

Who goes tubing in February? Twenty-eight men of Western Carolina University go tubing in February, that's who! Actually these men braved the ice-cold waters of the Tuckaseigee because they were entries in the Third Annual UCB Tubing Race.

Each entry was given a physical examination and wet suit. The wet suits were useless as the entries emerged from the water into the blowing wind. Many suffered as they went through the painful defrosting period. However, John Howie, the winner, warmed his back pocket with the prize money.

STUDENT UNREST

Since the beginning of winter quarter, Chancellor Carlton announced his selection of a new vice-chancellor, issued a moratorium on new tenure appointments, unveiled a new system for student evaluation of faculty performance, published a revised academic calendar, and established a regulation that all freshmen must live in residence halls. He has also said to have forced two deans to resign.

Students and faculty members came to arms. Over 400 students attended a student senate meeting and that night marched on Carlton's home. Carlton met with the students several times in a very heated confrontation. Students and faculty drew up petitions to change the calendar and voice opposition to other policies.

Chancellor responds to question asked him at a rap session. With him are Dean Dawson, Baxter Wood and Dr. Stuart Wilson.

MISS CATAMOUNT PAGEANT

The Miss Catamount Pageant, sponsored by the Catamount, is one of the biggest events at Western Carolina University. The pageant is held in February and this year had twenty-eight contestants sponsored by campus organizations. There were two preliminary nights in which the girls competed in swimsuit, gown and talent. Preliminary winners in talent and swimsuit were announced each night.

The pageant, directed for the third year by David Harb, has been proclaimed as one of the best in the state. Judges this year included men and women who had judged state pageants.

Emcee for the pageant was Mrs. Jeanne Swanner Bowline who was Miss North Carolina 1964 and Miss Congeniality in the Miss America Pageant. She stated that she was the tallest contestant (6'2") ever to compete in the Miss America Pageant and the tallest contestant to ever lose the Miss America Pageant.

A FAREWELL . . . A NEW QUEEN

Teary-eyed, Marcia Burton, Miss Catamount 1972, walked the ramp for the last time. Tears came not only from Marcia but from the audience and contestants as well. For her farewell speech she spoke the words to the song "Sometimes" and did the sign language of the deaf. Her tears quickly subsided as she crowned and congratulated the new Miss Catamount, Nancy Hammill. In the above picture Nancy is seen competing in swimsuit, gown and talent and reacting to the announcement.

Nancy is a junior from Brevard, North Carolina. She is majoring in Speech and Theatre Arts and hopes to one day be a professional actress. Sponsored by Sigma Kappa Sorority, she enacted a scene from "Fiddler on the Roof" with song and dance. She has had 14 years of ballet.

WINTER QUARTER ENTERTAINMENT SUPER!

Student Government Productions never ceases to amaze the students. Fall Quarter had been an excellent one for entertainment, but Winter Quarter was super!

DR. HOOK and the MEDICINE SHOW passed through Cullowhee giving away samples of their strange elixir of music and humor. Performing before a passive audience in Reid Gymnasium, the band opened with a revised version of "Sylvia's Mother" and went on to such songs as "Freak-in at the Freakster's Ball" and "Carry me Carie."

ELAINE COMPARONE brought the first full recital of harpsichord music ever held at WCU. Her performance included the works of J.C. Bach, J.S. Bach and Scarlatti.

MERRY CLAYTON delivered a dynamic performance in Reid Gymnasium preceding the Fifth Dimension. Known as the "girl who sang on 'Gimme Shelter'," she performed songs written by the top writers of today.

FIFTH DIMENSION LEAVE LASTING IMPRESSION

After several standing ovations, the Fifth Dimension left the stage, showered, and boarded their bus for Atlanta. The impression they made on the students of Western Carolina University will never be forgotten. They performed to please and please they did.

Comprised of five members — Marilyn McCoo, Florence Gordon, Lamonte McLemore, Billy Davis Jr. and Ron Townson — they have been one of the biggest and most popular acts in the music business since 1966.

On stage they achieved a balance of ballads, pop, and rhythm and blues. They didn't merely get on stage and perform their hits and leave. Instead, they combined songs into medleys and provided updated arrangements of older songs. They also employed well-rehearsed stage movements. At one point in the show members of the audience were brought on stage to dance with them.

Western's students were astounded with the performance of the Fifth Dimension.

THE GLASS MENAGERIE

Tennessee Williams' play, "The Glass Menagerie", was presented at Western January 29-February 3. Joan King of Sylva played Amanda and Sandra Hall of Mount Airy was Amanda's daughter, Laura. John Clark of Henderson portrayed the restless son, Tom, and Robert Funk, also of Henderson, played "a gentleman caller". Richard Beam directed and designed the set.

John Clark and Joan King in a dramatic scene.

COSI FAN TUTTE

Four chorus members were Danny Holloman, Karen Furno, Vicki Cornelius and Allen Freeman.

"Cosi Fan Tutte", Mozart's most popular opera, was presented by the Departments of Music and Speech and Theatre Arts. This was the first time an opera had been attempted at Western and it was a huge success. "All Women Behave Like That", the English title, is a satire on the sanctity of love. The story begins with two suitors, played by Orville Wike and Temple Smith, making a bet that their fiances, played by Leith Wike and Joyce Farwell, could be trusted. Don Alfonso, played by Edgar Vom Lehn, declared that no woman could be trusted.

CAT'S HEIGHT DISADVANTAGE LEAVES 12-13 SEASON RECORD

A thrilling victory over arch rival Appalachian State in the season finale helped to erase some of the frustration developed by Coach Jim Hartbarger and his Western Carolina University basketball team in an up and down 1972-73 campaign. The Catamounts ended the season with a 12-13 record after winning over 20 games in the two previous years. Hartbarger, who has now compiled a 70-52 record in four seasons, defines the reasons for the Catamounts puzzling campaign as "obvious." "We went into every game with a height disadvantage and could not offset that lack of rebounding with our inconsistent outside shooting," he explained.

The 1972-73 season was three months of constant ups and downs for Western Carolina's basketball team with most of those "ups" coming at home. The Cats posted a 9-3 record in Reid Gymnasium, but reversed that form on the road in winning only 3 of 13 contests.

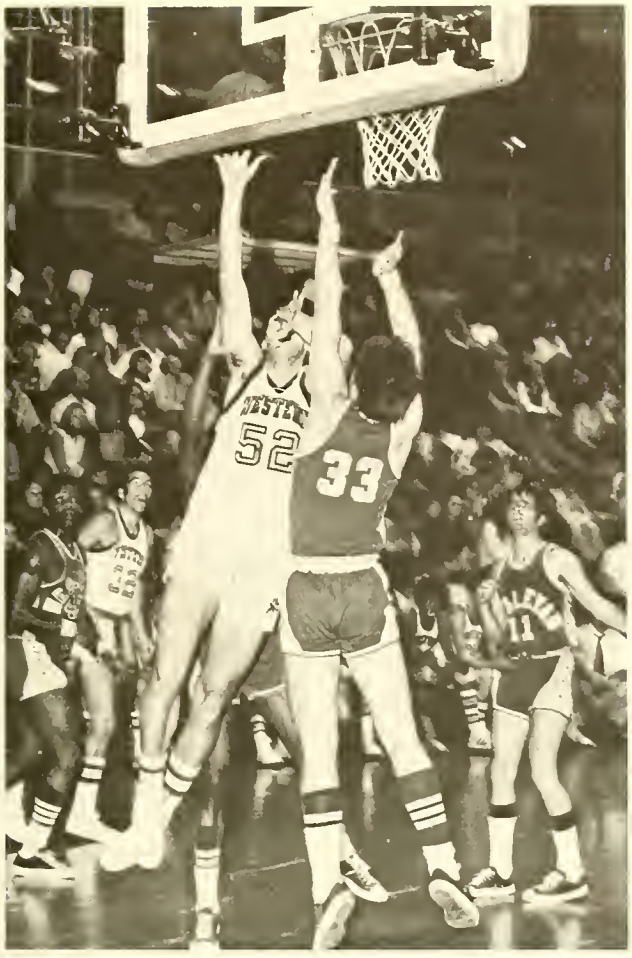
Larry Grant, the first player signed by Hartbarger four years ago, played in all but one game during his four year career.



Joe Wolfe (6'10") was sidelined early in the season with injuries.

The Cats boost spirit and entertain spectators.

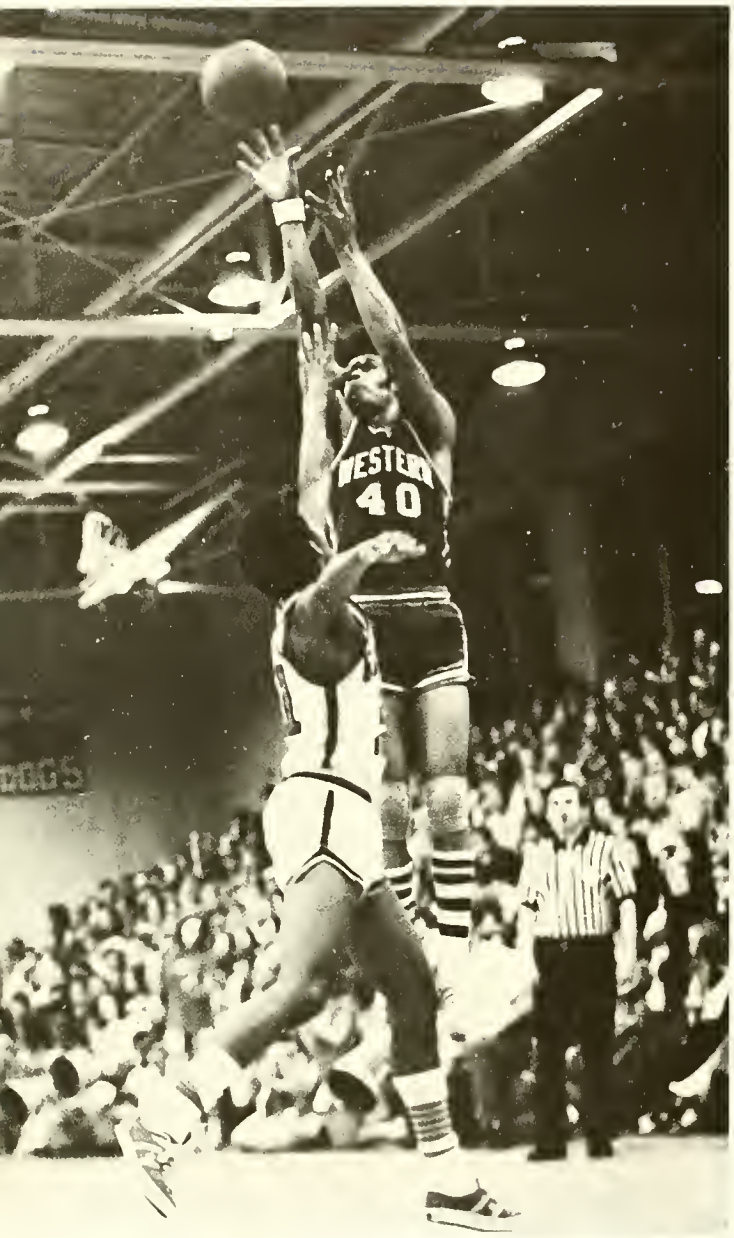
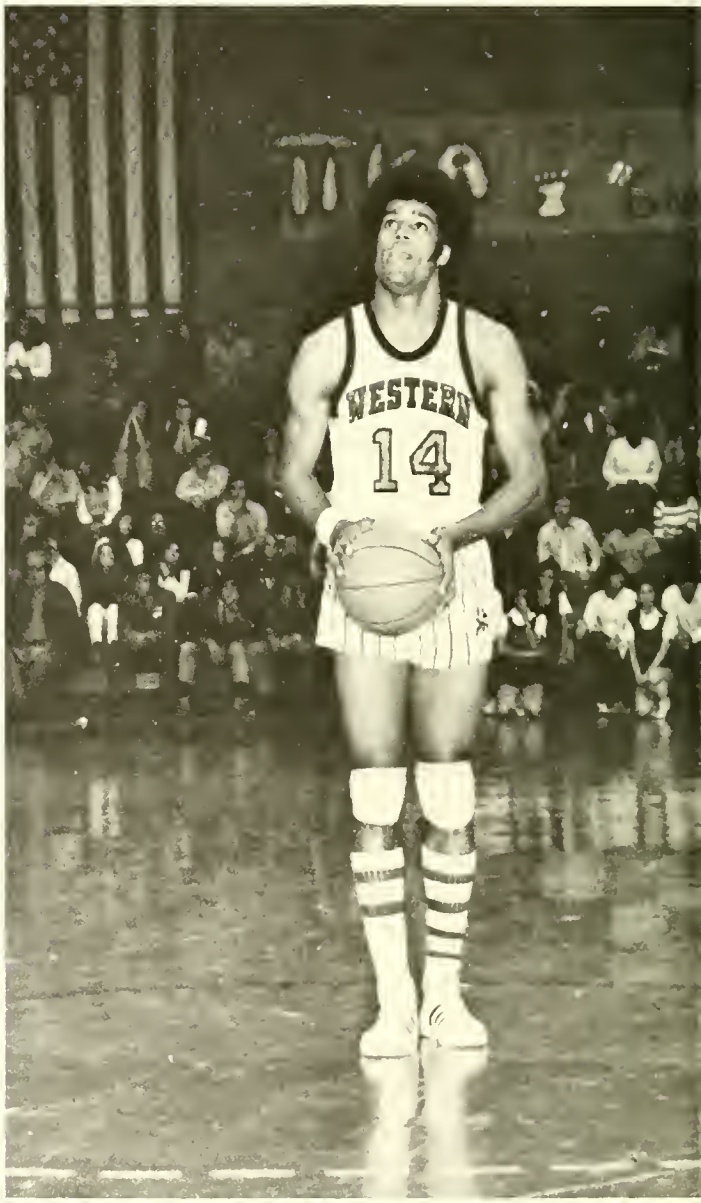
Although the Cats were at a disadvantage the entire season, their spirits never dwindled.

Albert Toomer plays his best.

Coach Hartbarger and Mal Brown give advice during time out.



Wilson Scott's three year career has been likened to a roller coaster — a lot of ups and downs. The leaper from Savannah, Georgia, played constantly with bad knees that prevented him from ever reaching his full potential.



JAYVEE BASKETBALL HAS FINEST SEASON YET

The 1972-73 WCU Jayvee basketball squad compiled the finest season in the history of the program with its 10-2 record. The squad, composed of seven freshmen and one sophomore, had impressive wins over junior college powers North Greenville and Palmer. The Jayvees also downed Appalachian State and Montreat-Anderson twice.

Ronnie Hoover was the team's leading scorer and rebounder. The 6'3" freshman forward scored at 24.7 point clip and rebounded at a 10.4 per game average. Harry Buckingham was second in both scoring and rebounding with an average of 14.1 points. Howard Ainsley scored at a 12.7 per game average. Hal Hawkins averaged 12.6 points and Buddy Mitchell scored at a 10.7 clip. Kelvin Corpening (5.4 ppg), Denver Powell (3.0 ppg) and Memmon Funderburke (1.2 ppg) provided the bench strength.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM POSTS WINNING SEASON

Western Carolina University's Women's Varsity Basketball Team, coached by Betty Westmoreland, had a winning season of eleven wins and seven losses. The team has a 99-26 record for seven seasons.

WRESTLERS COMPLETE FOURTH STRAIGHT WINNING CAMPAIGN

Western Carolina University's wrestling program recorded its fourth consecutive winning season this winter, but the Catamount grapplers had to rally from misfortune on several occasions to achieve the 8-6 mark. Coach Bob Setzer entered the 1973 campaign with optimistic hopes of having his best team ever. However, injuries set in even before the first match, and before the season had ended, four regulars were sidelined for almost the entire schedule. Nevertheless, the 1973 season produced many bright moments as collegiate wrestling continued to gain popularity on the WCU campus.

Heavyweight David Friedland established several WCU individual records in posting a perfect 13-0-0 record. Jerry Toy finished with an 11-3-0 record with five pins. In two years the sophomore has won 17 of his 22 matches. Bo Russell, a senior, has played a large role in WCU's four consecutive winning seasons. He completed the 1973 season with a 10-4-0 record. Doug Barrier was injured at mid-season and did not compete in the last eight matches. His career record of 28-4-2 stands as the best in Western Carolina history. Two seniors, Wayne Talley and Mike Mann, finished the season with a 6-6-0 and 5-5-0 record, respectively.

David Friedland continues his perfect season.

LADY CATS WIN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Gymnastics is a new sport at Western but in the first year of varsity competition the tough little Lady Cats won the North Carolina State Championship and posted a 6-0 record. In addition Susan Bulloch won first place as All-Around and for the uneven bars. She placed second in vaulting and fourth in floor routine. Cindy Nybro placed seventh in beam.

HARD WORKERS JUST THE SAME

The men's gymnastics team did not win the state title or go on to the regionals like the women's team because there is no North Carolina State meet for men. The team did have three meets which resulted in losses to Appalachian and Georgia Tech but a win over the Citadel. Regardless of their record, the men's gymnastics team worked hard throughout the year and look very promising in the future.

Kyle Kilborn displays the strength and skill which characterizes the men's gymnastics team.

Like any sport, gymnastics requires a lot of hard work every day.

WINTER INTRAMURALS

Of the three seasons of intramurals, winter involves the fewest sports. The major reason is that all of these sports are played indoors. Basketball, swimming and water polo were the sports involved. The winners are pictured on these pages.

Women Individual Winners

There's no better sign that Spring is on its way than the line-up of men on the popular wall in front of the University Center.

Such a sight as this requires a close-up.

The warm weather brings out fashions in all types and colors; hats included.

SIGNS BEGIN TO INDICATE WARMER DAYS

Spring is coming. The signs are all around. New growth can be seen on trees, and buds begin to blossom. Groups gather outdoors to converse. Hot pants and midriff tops are everywhere. Barefeet plod into the cafeteria. And, of course, man and woman together.

(Above) Shenanigans are frequent during the lusty month of May.

Motorcycles are brought out of hibernation.

COULD IT BE SPRING FEVER?

It's hard to pinpoint why Spring is such a beautiful season. Perhaps it is the warmth or the flowers. Maybe it's the tubing or the swimming.

One possibility that can't be ruled out is the togetherness. Spring tends to attract friends and unite lovers. There's no scientific explanation for the feeling one gets during this season. Could it be "spring fever?"

Spring is a time for being together. (Below) It's hard to find an empty couch in the women's dorms.

SPRING IS HERE!

Make no mistake about it! When car loads of men are lined around the women's dorms it can mean only one thing — BIKINI SWIMSUITS!

With unlimited cuts, men and women tend to make the most of those days of sunshine. The Cullowhee weather is unpredictable. It could be raining in the morning, hot in the afternoon and snowing that night. Well, maybe this is a "little" exaggerated but Cullowhee definitely does have peculiar weather.

One thing for sure, when women begin their sunning; SPRING IS HERE!

When driving around the women's dorms it is hard to miss "Bikini Beach." The only way to disperse them is to send a photographer.

WHY CAN'T WE LIVE TOGETHER?

The Organization of Ebony Students sponsored a series of events observing Black Week. The theme of the 1973 Black Week was "Why Can't We Live Together?"

Dr. Raleigh Bynum, a prominent optometrist, spoke to students on Tuesday night. The following nights consisted of a filmstrip "Black Roots", a black fashion show and talent show and another film "Fack Johnson."

The week's activities concluded with a dance in the Grandroom featuring the Fungus Blues. During intermission the new Ebony Queen was announced.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS GREAT SUCCESS

Western Carolina University was transformed into Olympic City as over 150 special children from western North Carolina marched around the track to the music of the Cherokee High School Band in the opening ceremonies of the Special Olympics.

Sponsored nationally by the Kennedy Foundation and regionally by the Jackson County YARC, the event remained true to Olympic tradition as the young distance runner approached the podium and lit the torch.

There was also a "specialness" which seemed to radiate from everyone involved.

Opening ceremonies included a parade of the athletes.

CIRUNA PRESENTS SYMPOSIUM ON SOUTHERN AFRICA

The local chapter of CIRUNA held a symposium on Southern Africa, May 3 and 4.

Talks and discussions included topics on United States involvement in southern Africa, white minority rule, American business involvement, the United States and southern Africa in international politics and the role of international and non-governmental organizations in southern Africa.

Several distinguished speakers attended including representatives from the embassies of Zambia and Botswana. Other speakers were George Houser, executive secretary for The American Committee on Africa, Paul Irish of Oberlin College, and a State Department representative who discussed American positions.

Three WCU students, Mike Brady, Beth Mortimer and Lee Thompson, president of CIRUNA, organized the symposium.

ELECTION YEAR 1973

Spring brings student elections to Western Carolina. There are elections for president and vice-president of the student government, senators, editors of the Catamount and Western Carolinian, officers of the University Center and director of WCAT.

There were three candidates for president. Harold Rogers was elected president in a run-off against Scott Lindsay. Wardell Townsend won vice-president by 51 votes over Dwight Sparks. Wardell is the first black to ever hold the position.

FROM STRIPPER TO OPERA

No university could possibly have had a greater variety of entertainment than Western Carolina. The entertainment included Billy Preston, opera star Jerome Hines, actor John Chappell, stripper Tempest Storm, bluegrass musicians Lester Flatt and Bill Monroe, an authority on Dracula Radu Florescu, and the James Gang.

Entertainment was sponsored by Student Government Productions and LCE.

BLUE GRASS FESTIVAL

Reid Gymnasium was filled with that high charged, foot stamping, hand clapping, grin raising sound of bluegrass when some of the finest creators of bluegrass music participated in WCU's 3rd Annual Spring Bluegrass Festival.

Featured in this year's festival were the two giants of the Country Music business — Bill Monroe, more commonly known as the "Father of Bluegrass Music," and the internationally renowned Lester Flatt.

Performing along with Monroe and Flatt were Jim and Jesse and James Monroe. Jim and Jesse were one of the first groups to record "Mocking Banjo's" (popular today as "Dueling Banjo's").

This year's festival was organized by WCU student Marc Pruett, who is banjoist for James Monroe's Band. He organized the festival to promote old mountain folk arts and bluegrass music in hopes of making more people aware and appreciative of what's around them.

LYSISTRATA

"Lysistrata" by Aristophanes cannot be termed an ancient play. More up-to-date than many shows running on Broadway, this play reveals the idiosyncrasies of war and how it can undermine the life-patterns of a society caught up in the bloody mess.

What makes the play truly remarkable and sets it apart from all other plays is Aristophanes' employment of women as a tool to end the war. Lysistrata, played by Karen Furno, and the women behind her, stage a sex-strike and refuse any kind of sexual pleasure to the menfolk until they agree to settle their differences and end the war. The resulting outcome is what any person would normally expect.

THE EFFECT OF GAMMA RAYS ON MAN-IN-THE-MOON MARIGOLDS

Directed by student Louis P. Bell, this play presents tragi-comically the despair surrounding Beatrice, a middle-aged woman who feels trapped by her situation as mother to her two girls and nursemaid to a dying old woman. Beatrice, played by Sonja Beckham, is a domineering woman. Eileen Ferrell played the part of timid Tilly, the younger plain-jane daughter who becomes a prize winning science student for her experiment with man-in-the-moon marigolds. Ruth, her prettier older sister portrayed by Vikki Abernathy, is a flighty high school girl recovering from a mental breakdown. Nancy Hammill portrayed the old woman.

ONE ACTS

The University Players presented two nights of one-acts, May 16 and 17. "Softly and Consider the Nearness" was directed by Sonja S. Beckham. Nancy Hammill directed "No Exit" by Jean-Paul Sartre. "The Toilet" was directed by David Hearst.

CULLOWHEE ACADEMY AWARDS

An annual event for the theater is the awards night. Similar to the Tony and Academy Awards the University Players vote on the nominees. Best Actress for the year was Sonja Beckham and best actor was John Clark. Best supporting actor and actress was Earl Willis and Vicki Abernathy. Nancy Hammill received an award for Best Character and Louis Bell received the Best Director Award.

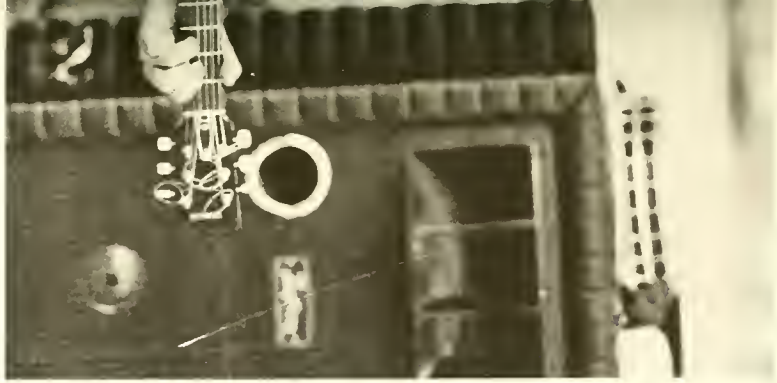
Preceding the awards at the Court Hill Inn was a musical review.

CULLOWHEE COUNTRY FAIR SUCCESSFUL

It was another first for Cullowhee!

The Cullowhee Country Fair was held on the lawn of the University Center. Both cafeterias closed for supper so students had to line up for hot dogs and barbecues. Organizations set up booths of every sort including such things as a fortune teller, dunking game and kissing booth.

The Promelettes, a group of young cloggers from Franklin, entertained a good crowd at the fair.



MOTORCROSS IN CULLOWHEE

Sponsored by the Western North Carolina Trail Club and the University Center Board, a motorcross was held in Cullowhee. The exact site was the half-mile grass track in the field adjacent to the WCU baseball field. Entrants were split into three classes depending on engine size. Charles Sutton took first place in the 0-125 cc class and Rob Tiger registered second. In the 126-250 cc class, Bill Carpenter grabbed a first while Mark Sumner followed in second place. Riding the big bikes, Charles Sutton also rode to first in the unlimited class, finishing ahead of John Brooks. All WCU students, university employees, and Trail Club members were eligible.

RED HOT CATS COMPLETE SEASON BY WINNING EIGHT OUT OF LAST TEN

"It is just a shame that it's over," commented Western Carolina University baseball coach Bill Haywood following his team's final game of the 1973 season. After a dismal 3-7 start, the Cats found the winning groove and completely turned the season around, winning eight of their last ten games.

If anyone could be blamed for Western's poor showing during the season's first month, it would be the weatherman. Following big wins over Wake Forest and North Carolina, the rains set in and forced cancellation of seven of sixteen contests within a period of just 27 days.

The coming of good weather in mid-April marked the beginning of a surge that was to push the Cats over the .500 mark and assure them of a winning record. By the time the dust had cleared, they had wins over Erskine, South Carolina, Furman, Wofford, and Southern Conference Champions Appalachian State and a record of 11-9 while improving their team batting average from a mid-season .212 to a fine .250.

Fishel led his teammates in stolen bases, total bases and hits.

(Right) Coach Haywood not only felt the affects of the lack of game experience, but also the many days the team couldn't go outside to practice.

"A CHALLENGE BRINGS OUT THE BEST IN A PERSON"

Coach Paul Jones, in his first season at the helm of the Western Carolina University track and field program, apparently adheres to the adage "a challenge brings out the best in a person."

Jones presented his thinclads with "a challenge" in the form of a demanding schedule against top flight competition with dual meets against the likes of Ball State, Furman and Georgia and in relay meets such as News-Piedmont, Florida, Quantico and Auburn.

Although the respectable won-loss reading (21-9) was somewhat less impressive than in some of the past championship seasons, Jones was pleased with the overall effort.

TENNIS TEAM COMES ALIVE

The Western Carolina tennis team came alive in the second half of the season to pull out the first winning campaign for a Catamount net squad in three years.

At mid-season, the Cat netters were struggling along with a 2-4 record against the likes of tennis powers Central Michigan and East Stroudsburg. The rest of the campaign was a different story as they pulled out four victories while losing only once for an overall 6-5 record.

Junior Bill Robinson and freshman Joe Clark battled for the No. 1 spot throughout the season. Clark finished with the better record of the two (6-5) as compared to Robinson's 5-6. However, it was Dave LeGrand, playing in the lower two positions, that posted the best record with his 6-2 mark.

Seniors John Gilbert and George Pankiw posted 4-6 records as they fought it out for No. 3.

LADIES TENNIS ENDS SEASON WITH 2-2 RECORD

Led by senior Mary Lynn Stovall and Debbie Trotter, the WCU women's varsity tennis team closed its season with an even 2-2 record.

The squad met Mars Hill twice taking both contest, 6-3 and 5-4. They later bowed to Appalachian 2-7 and dropped a close one to Wake Forest 5-4.

Coached by Betty Peele, those returning members of the squad for next year include undefeated freshman Anna Bolic, freshman Frances Mitchell, sophomore Carol Vaughan, and Jill Sistare, a junior.

BEST GOLF SEASON EVER

Perhaps the highlight of the Spring sports season was the Catamount golf team's emergence into respectability with a winning campaign.

Coach Don Dalton's linksters compiled a fine 9-6 record which included wins over Appalachian State, UNC-Asheville and LaSalle.

Intercollegiate golf was reinstated to the WCU sports scene in 1972 after a one year absence, and the young Cats of last season found the competition difficult. However, the past Spring was a different story as the squad matured to give WCU its best golf season ever.

Newcomer Russ Roberson led the winning effort with the best stroke average as he hit the 80's only twice in fifteen matches. Senior co-captain Sammy Nichols finished his career with the team's second best average. Buzzy Worrall and Joe Shropshire tied for the No. 3 spot.

With six of the squad returning next year, the future looks even brighter for the growing WCU golf program.

"WE WANT PANTIES"

There was no movie in Cullowhee, nothing good on the few televisions around, nothing to study (exams were a whole week away) and in general another boring night until — the sap began to rise and young men's fancy turned to those lacy underthings.

"We want panties, we want panties" chanted the fired up mob as a few women hung out the windows of Walker Hall throwing rolls of toilet paper and buckets of water to their Romeos.

"I came to get panties and I got them. I've got a perfect record," said one young man as he stuffed them down his pants.

An eager group of men milled about in front of Walker and were rewarded with toilet paper and lingerie.

HEAVY RAINS FLOOD CULLOWHEE

The heavy rains caused a great deal of damage. However, no injuries were related to the storm.

Heavy rains engulfed Cullowhee the night before final exams and caused severe road and bridge damage.

Minor arteries to Cullowhee were severed as three bridges were washed out and two more submerged.

In addition, the WCU Volunteer Fire Department was called to the old rest home near campus. A small bridge crossing Cullowhee Creek leading to the house had been washed out so firemen helplessly stood by and watched it burn down.

MEMORIES

There is a mixture of emotions as the year ends. There is happiness because exams are over, summer vacation is beginning and the wallet will once again feel full. There is sadness because it means leaving friends and perhaps the one you love. But, if one will remember, these same emotions were there as the year began; happiness because you were back with friends; sadness because the summer was over.

Just as the year began so it ends — with memories.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA HOLDS "SORORITY KIDNAP"

Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity had a very unique fund-raising event on November 30, 1972. The event, known as the Lambda Chi Alpha Sorority Kidnap, is an annual affair at most of the fraternity's 200 chapters. The action began around the dinner hour when the fearless Lambda Chi "hoods" invaded Dodson Cafeteria in search of their victims. The mob captured each of the five sorority presidents. Each president was taken to the Lambda Chi house and held as hostage while a ransom note outlining conditions for release was sent to each sorority. The sorority which brought in the highest total of booty won release of its president and the trophy. The unfortunate fate of the remaining women was decided by the assembled band of rogues. Over $7,500.00 worth of merchandise was collected and given to the Jackson County Social Services Department.

Lambda Chi Little Sisters are Frances Beam, Vickie Holt, Becky Erwin, Susan Wike, Vicky Burgess, Pam Shannonhouse, Pat Gibson, Donna Foster, Sandi Hardin, Laura Oliver, Debbie Stutts Peggy Hardison, Cathy Edwards and Sylvia Morris.

SIGMA KAPPA SPONSORS PIE THROW

An annual event for the Sigma Kappas is the pie throw held on the lawn of Dodson Cafeteria. The price to throw a pie at a Sigma Kappa was 10¢ for a small pie and $1.00 for a large pie. All proceeds were sent to the Maine Sea Coast Mission and the American Farm School in Silanica, Greece.

Sigma Kappa Sorority, with her founding on November 9, 1874, at Colby College in Waterville, Maine, is one of the oldest Greek letter organizations. Our local chapter, Gamma Rho, was founded at Western Carolina in 1958, making it the oldest Greek letter organization on campus.

Although Sigma Kappa is a social sorority, it stresses the development of leadership, character, scholarship, high ideals and spiritual growth in a well-rounded college woman. "One heart, One way" is the open motto of Sigma Kappa.

Alpha Lambda Delta is an academic honorary for freshman women who achieve a 3.5 Q.P.R. on the first two quarters of college work while carrying a normal load.

Alpha Phi Sigma was organized in 1931 for the purpose of promoting high scholarship standards. Students may become members by maintaining a 3.25 Q.P.R. for 90 hours.

Alpha Tau Sigma honors outstanding band women through the privilege of membership. The purpose is to promote the existence and welfare of the University Band and to cultivate a wholesome respect for its activities.

Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education, was founded in 1909 at the University of Illinois. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank scholastically in the top 20% of the student body, have at least an overall B average and intend to make education his profession.

Kappa Kappa Psi fosters a close relationship between university bands and promotes a high average of attainment by the performance of good music and selection of worthwhile projects. Membership is by invitation of the brothers.

Psi Chi has as its main objective the interest in psychology as a behavioral science. Meetings featuring lectures, seminars, exhibitions, field trips, and other activities reflect the ideas of the club.

CATAMOUNT

The Catamount is Western Carolina University's yearbook. It is a collection of ideas entailing many hours of labor, which create a memory book for the students each year.

The editor and business manager are elected during the spring quarter by the student body after approval of qualifications. Staff membership is open to all interested persons who feel they qualify for the positions available and are approved by the editor. As a rule, advanced editorial duties are assigned to staff members with previous experience.

Work is done on the publication throughout the academic year. The finished product is distributed by mail during the summer to graduates and distributed to returning students in the fall. It is by summer delivery that the students may receive a complete yearbook.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA SERVES YOU

Brother Allen directed the Special Olympics.

Alpha Phi Omega is the only service fraternity on the campus of Western Carolina University. Although they are small in number, the men of APO have provided a great deal of service to the campus and community this year. Contributions to the Miss Thanksgiving Womanless Pageant were distributed to needy families in the Jackson County area. They sponsored the bloodmobile twice as well as a campus wide clean-up. Aid was given to flood victims and a great deal of assistance was given to the Special Olympics.

The fraternity was founded in 1925 and is now active on more than 450 campuses in the United States. Having chapters in the Philippines makes it one of the few international fraternities. More than 100,000 men have been affiliated with the fraternity. Membership is open to all Greek and non-Greek men regardless of color or faith.

Similar to other fraternities, there is a pledge period and the carrying of paddles.

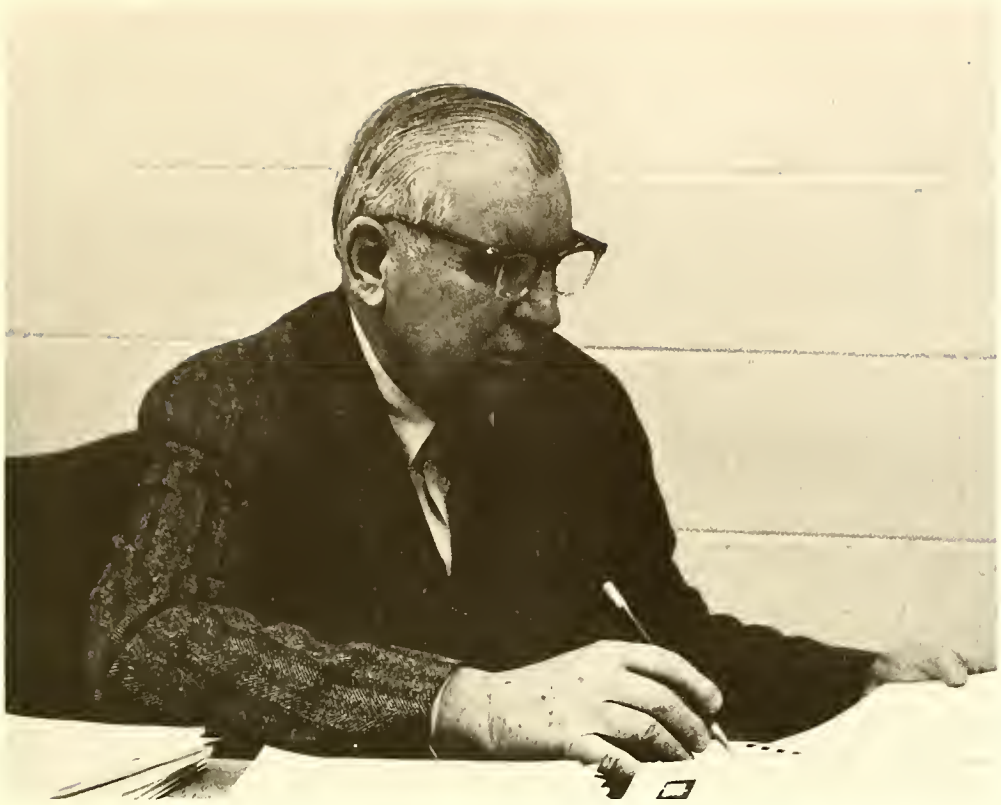
A native of Baileyville, Texas, Dr. Carlton comes to Western from the presidency of Macon Junior College, Macon, Georgia. He has earned degrees from Centenary College (B.S.) and Louisiana State University (M.S. and Ph.D in chemistry). He has been Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of West Florida, taught at the University of Arkansas, Georgia Tech, and was Dean of the College of Sciences at the LSU campus in New Orleans. He has served as a consultant, done extensive research in the field of chemistry, and published several papers.

Dr. Carlton is married to the former Mary Ellen Petree of Shreveport, Louisiana. They have four children ranging in age from 10 to 23.

Dr. Carlton and other administrators can be seen at ball games.



Frank Brown, Vice-Chancellor for Administration, has been here for many years.

Aaron Hyatt, Director for Institutional Research and Development; D. R. McGinnis, Assistant Director of Institutional Research and Development.

Dr. J. Stuart Wilson, Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs, received his degree from Rice University.

(Standing, left to right) Mr. Germino, Mrs. B. Scott, Mrs. Willingham, Mrs. Pangle, Mrs. Brooks, Dr. H. A. Matthews (Sitting, left to right) Mrs. Case, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Shelton.

Pritchard Smith, Director of Traffic and Security

Berg Newhouse, Director of Physical Plant

HEALTH, SAFETY AND STUDENT NEEDS

H. P. McCarroll, Manager of University Supply Store

The University Health Service provides treatment for emergency and short-term mental and physical illness. The twenty-two bed infirmary is staffed by two full-time physicians and eight nurses.

The Traffic and Security Committee is interested and concerned with providing a safe environment for students as well as enforcing school and state policies.

The University Supply Store offers school supplies, sportswear, greeting cards, required paperbacks, et cetera.

The Physical Plant provides maintenance for dorms, classrooms, streets and grounds.

There are two cafeterias on campus located at the east and west ends. They are open for meals every day.

The Hiram T. Hunter Library, containing 150,000 volumes, provides study and research facilities for students and faculty.

Steadman Mitchell is Director of Food Service. He received an A.A. from Mars Hill College.

Robert Balliot, University Librarian

OFFICE FOR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

Every aspect of student life at Western Carolina University is a concern of the Office for Student Development. The offices within the Division encourage and offer assistance to all students in their education at the University and life beyond the realm of academic instruction. Through the numerous services available, all personnel within the Division will conscientiously try to find ways for the individual student to express himself, meet his needs, and give him a sense of belonging as a student of the University.

The offices of the Deans of Student Development have responsibility for the total welfare of all students. They aggressively promote, in conjunction with all levels of the University, the social growth, academic achievement and emotional stability of Western Carolina students. Their services provide information, counseling, guidance and assistance to students in any area of concern.

Robert Dawson is Dean of Student Activities. He received his M.Ed. from Florida Atlantic University.

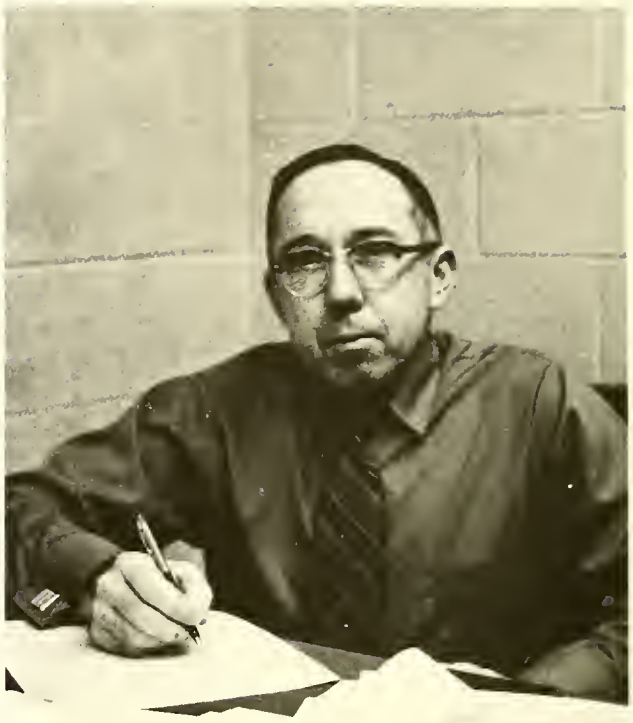
ADMINISTRATORS SERVE STUDENTS AND FACULTY

The purpose of any college administration is to serve both students and faculty. The men and women on these two pages are good examples for they cover such areas as housing, student teaching, registration and student entertainment. To fulfill their duties, the administration needs the co-operation of students and faculty.

Dale Tedder, Budget Officer



Jessie Flake, Internal Auditor

William C. Stump, Assistant; Doyle Dillard, Vice-President for Business Affairs

Glen Hardesty, Director of Student Financial Aid

THE MEN WHO HANDLE THE MONEY

The men on this page are in charge of spending, loaning, budgeting and collecting the university's money.

Because many capable students cannot continue their education due to lack of financial means, Western has a program to assist students in financing their education. Financial aid awards are designated on the basis of demonstrated need, academic promise, and personal qualifications.

Roy Shuler, Assistant; John McCracken, Purchasing Officer

. . . and this is the weaving of human living:

of whose fabric each individual is a part:

. . . each is intimately connected with the bottom and the extremest reach of time:

. . . and not one of these things nor one of these persons is ever quite to be duplicated
nor replaced:

. . . but each is a new and incommunicably
tender life . . .

. . . sustaining for a while, without defense. . .

the enormous assaults of the universe.

Reach Out

Editor's Note

The 1973 Catamount is more than a cover with pages, copy and pictures. It's me. I have poured myself into this book throughout the year. I have been in the office alone on weekends and saw night turn into morning. I have let my school work go by because I just had to get some layouts finished, and I have gone to bed worried that it just wasn't going to turn out the way I wanted it to.

Throughout the year I was so caught up in the yearbook that I sometimes forgot the point of the book — showing students how we are constantly reaching out to each other. I was so involved in writing the theme and carrying it through that I found myself doing everything. I began to overlook the very people who were supposed to be helping me. Doing this book just meant so much to me because it is my contribution to Western Carolina University and to you. An editor of a yearbook has complete control over everything going into the book. I tried to give recognition to everyone without any prejudices. Of course some will not like the book, but everyone never likes the same thing. If one person says to me, "David, the yearbook is very good," then the time that I spent working on the yearbook will have been worthwhile.

I would sincerely like to thank my friends who understood the burden I had, and the most dependable people I know — my photographers.

My ambition was to make this a yearbook you could be proud of. I hope you can go up to a friend and say, "This is MY yearbook," with pride in your voice.

David Harb
